What information is collected and processed?

When filling out our form, we process the following information:
Name, email address, IP addresses, field of study, and any other information you share with us.

The information is only processed to the extent it is adequate, relevant, and limited to what is necessary in relation to providing our service.

Legal basis for processing

We only process your information in accordance with applicable legislation, including the GDPR.
Processing of your personal data is carried out on the following basis:

- We have requested your consent for the processing of your personal data for one or more specific purposes.

Third-party processing

We make use of third parties for the processing of your information. This includes external and professional companies, such as suppliers and partners, who help us deliver and provide our service in the best possible way, as well as handle your data.

INSCRIVE APS processes personal data with secure third parties, which are either subject to the same rules or have entered into similar agreements with the same requirements.

The transfer of your information takes place in accordance with applicable legislation and this policy.
Third parties may not use the information for their own purposes and process it only to the extent on behalf of INSCRIVE APS. The information may be stored in a form that allows identification of the data subject, and not for longer than necessary in relation to the purpose.

Purpose of collecting and processing information

INSCRIVE APS aims to generate leads from our website in order to get in touch with more potential customers.
When you fill out the form, you consent to the processing of your personal data, including whether we may contact you for direct marketing purposes.

INSCRIVE APS does not make any automated decisions in our processing of your personal data.

Your rights

As a user of INSCRIVE APS, you of course have all the rights granted to you under applicable legislation. This includes the right to be informed about what information INSCRIVE APS collects about you and your use of our solutions, and you may demand that information collected about you by INSCRIVE APS be corrected or deleted if the information is incomplete or incorrect. Furthermore, the right to data portability naturally also applies.

If personal data is based on consent, it can best be withdrawn by contacting us directly at the email provided.

Complaints

To exercise your rights, you must contact us. The best way to do this is by writing to our responsible contact by email at: viktor@betterdevelopers.dk

In addition to contacting INSCRIVE APS directly via the above email address, you are also entitled to direct any complaints to the national supervisory authority:

Retention period of information

The information is stored for the period permitted under the law, and we delete it when it is no longer necessary. Every possible measure is taken to ensure that information which is inaccurate for the purpose for which it is processed is deleted or corrected without undue delay.

INSCRIVE APS ensures that your information is not stored longer than strictly necessary. To this end, internal deadlines have been introduced for deletion or periodic review of collected data, depending on the nature and context of the information. All this is done to ensure compliance with applicable legislation.
